

IMPORTANT GUIDELINES FOR 13TH ICBM 2026

Registration, Submission and Presentation Requirements for Accepted Papers

Please note that acceptance of the paper does not imply automatic confirmation of presentation. Confirmation of presentation is strictly subject to compliance with the following mandatory requirements and conditions:

1. Conference Registration and Fee Payment

All authors (in case of more than one author for a single paper) must complete the registration process individually by paying the prescribed registration fee. Certificates shall be issued only to duly registered authors.

Registration and fee payment for all authors and co-authors must be completed on or before 26th January 2026.

2. Multiple Papers by the Same Author

In case an author is presenting more than one paper in the Conference, separate registration is mandatory for each paper.

Papers failing to meet any of the above conditions will not be considered for presentation, irrespective of prior acceptance.

Requests received after the stipulated deadlines shall not be entertained.

3. Participants claiming exemption

Participants claiming exemption from registration fees are required to verify their eligibility by referring to the guidelines available on the official conference website:
 <https://icbm2026.sbsc.in/>

We look forward to your active participation and scholarly contribution to the conference.

*Please note that online paper presentations are permitted only for outstation presenters. Kindly be informed that papers presented online will not be considered for the Best Paper Award.
